MILITARY

1. Visit of USS PURDY. The USS PURDY (DD734), Commander J. T. CRANDALL, Commanding, visited Jidda January 13-16. Despite the handicaps posed by the Ramadhan fast, members of the crew were able to get ashore during the day for picnics and water sports at Abhur Creek and to wander through the suq in the evening. While official entertaining was held to a minimum, the ship was able to play host one evening to about 25 Saudi Army anti-aircraft artillerymen for a film and light refreshments. (UNCLASSIFIED)

PSYCHOLOGICAL

The Indonesian-Malaysian confrontation, and Indonesia's decision to pull out of the UN, continued to attract headlines and some commentary. The Department's statement that the US hopes for a peaceful resolution of the dispute attracted headlines in the January 17 edition of Ukaz.

The reported decision taken by the Arab Prime [illegible] Conference regarding West German relations with Israel led al-Madina's anonymous commentator "RASID" to allege that the Germans are being pushed into a rapprochement with Israel by the US. "Rasid" urged the Germans to take a strong attitude and tell Washington for once: "We will not obey." (UNCLASSIFIED)
